

In d i g o

architecture | interiors

www.beingindigo.com

2 0 6 . 8 5 5 . 9 3 9 9

renew

The formerly cramped kitchen was doubled in size to accommodate enthusiastic cooking and food focused entertaining. Real prep areas, a sunny bay window breakfast nook, and a long comfortable bar counter demands just hanging out.

reuse

Recycled wood flooring and reclaimed heavy timber beams in the kitchen were prime drivers of the finish palette which remains relatively subdued to showcase these main character elements.

living good

Revamping of the outdoor deck areas included creating a built in barbecue cooking area, a covered outdoor dining area accompanied by a fireplace shared with the new kitchen. A new water feature softens the extents of the large deck and is a popular gathering place for the dogs and kids.

bainbridge island, wa cook's kitchen

